

8/8/08 - Pioneering Doctor Celebrates Release of Life's Work

After years of research directly in the psyche, Aurora Juliana Ariel, PhD brings out landmark discoveries and a revolutionary breakthrough Counseling Technology that is changing lives worldwide

WAILEA, Hawaii – On 8/8/08 a huge celebration took place as Dr. Aurora Juliana Ariel celebrated the release of her life's work in her first book in the Earth 2012 series, first solo music CD, Renaissance of Grace, and the launch of her multimedia company, AEOS. Luminaries arrived from as far away as London and Australia, including sponsor and supporter, Marc Ivey (The Edge Management, London), and renowned Australian musician, Ken Davis, who has released 50 CDs to date. The event took place at the home of AEOS supporter, Tara Grace, and included AEOS supporter, Joe Sugarman, author and founder of BlueBlocker Sunglasses. Authors, Dr. Joan and Tomas Heartfield attended along with artist, Mark Mackay, whose mural is in the Maui Ocean Center. Dr. Nat brought in the Latin influence with his performance, and Ken Davis ended the night with his amazing performance on keyboards.

A powerful visionary, Aurora's next intention is to take Oprah through TheQuest™ 7 Steps to show people around the world how easy it is to resolve issues, heal patterns, and change the challenging conditions of their lives. A pioneer in her field, Dr. Ariel's heart for humanity has also translated into TheQuest™ Certificate Trainings under the Institute of Advanced Healing, which she founded and heads, and the setting up of chapters to serve communities around the world, the first of which will be in Israel upon her Israeli Students' graduation. Her love for translating knowledge into inspired media productions led to the founding of AEOS, a Hawaii based Multimedia Company, with a host of music, books, and films she is authoring planned for release in the coming years. Charlotte Collins, a filmmaker from London who attended the event has now joined AEOS to work with Aurora on the first film in the 2012 series, which will begin production in 2009. She will be joining Dr. Ariel in the south of France early year to begin working on the project, where Dr. Ariel will also receive support in bringing her work to Europe by Marc Ivey, who recently purchased a villa there.

In her groundbreaking, critically acclaimed book, Earth 2012: The Ultimate Quest, How To Find Peace In A World of Chaos, Dr. Aurora Juliana Ariel melds powerful psychology, breakthrough healing steps, and scientific predictions to show how our planet is emerging from a Dark Night into consciousness – and how we can individually unlock our full potential. Her belief, "When we heal our life, we change our destiny." Dr. Ariel brings forth revolutionary Counseling and Self Counseling Techniques in the book that distills a powerful subconscious healing process into seven steps that are designed to accelerate personal healing. It is a remedy – and it is real. Driven workaholics, addicts, and those working off an old (and damaging) script have used TheQuest™ to self heal by reprogramming the subconscious.

TheQuest™ is part of a bigger picture, however. Drawing on parable and historical references, Earth 2012 is a concise guide that carefully outlines the path to internal peace, but also explains the incredible passage humankind is in – an amazing time period in which an entirely new culture is emerging en masse. Using science, research, and drawing on her psychological expertise, Dr. Ariel weaves a blend of sacred prophecies, scientific predictions, and prophetic visions centered around the year 2012, a very significant time period in which the Mayan calendar comes to an end. This magical year represents an unprecedented opportunity to turn the tide on our current challenging planetary conditions ... and it is an opportunity for you to play a significant role in your own life. In the year 2012, the first rays of light will bathe Earth in glorious, widely prophesized potential: A profound, invisible shift that will affect the human psyche. The question is, will you be ready?

Praise for Dr. Ariel's book, Earth 2012

"...inspiring, prophetic... can take humanity through a quantum leap into a future Eden ..."
John Gray, author, Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus

"After experiencing TheQuest™ and working closely with Dr. Aurora Juliana Ariel, I am excited to see the powerful ramifications this book will have on people around the world."
Jack Canfield, co-author of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series

"This powerful, practical book will guide you through one of the most challenging periods of our collective history. Read it, please!"
Harold H. Bloomfield, MD, author, Making Peace with Your Past
